

A course from our:
● Emergency Response
range of programs

RESPONDING TO A FIRE INCIDENT

Standards:	Australian, New Zealand Standards OH & S Act National Competency Standards
Award:	Statement of Attainment
Accreditation:	Undertake First Response to Fire Incident – PMAOHS212A
Target Group:	All organisations, industries and workplaces
Valid:	1 year
Pre-requisite:	Nil
Course Duration:	6 - 8 hours Awareness 2-4 hours to meet client needs
Assessment:	Competency based skills & knowledge
Course Content:	Acts and standards, policy and procedures Evaluating and communicating location, nature and extent of fire Determine first response to attack fire emergencies or evacuate Personal safety and protective clothing Extinguishing selection Operate basic fighting equipment safely, Observing changes conditions and fire behaviour Emergency authority notification and reporting changes Clear and unambiguous communications Evacuate area in a safe and controlled manner Security of emergency area, people, equipment, process and environment.
Course Equipment:	Organisation policy / procedures Manufacturer specifications Emergency response equipment PPE Maintenance schedules and records Other client specific relevant resources
Style of course:	Designed and conducted to suit your workplace/personal needs. A “Hands On” training approach based on good skills and relevant, non-threatening information conducted by experienced, qualified and motivating educators. The course is both educational and fun to do.

